Stewart's Shops supports Opera for kids

Saratoga Springs, NY (December 19, 2011) Opera Saratoga recently received a donation of $2,500 from Stewart's Shops to support the Opera to Go Education Program in 2012.

Opera to Go brings staged, fully costumed operatic performances to more than fifty schools throughout the greater Capital Region. In 2012, Opera to Go will be presenting "Little Red's Most Unusual Day," an adaptation by John Davies set to the music of Jacques Offenbach and Gioacchino Rossini. Opera to Go will be visiting schools from February 27 through April 5, 2012.

Stewart's Shops' donation will also be used to support the production of free public Opera to Go performances in March 2012. Performances will take place at the Saratoga Springs Public Library (March 10), The New York State Museum (March 17), and The Crandall Public Library in Glens Falls (March 24). For additional information, call Opera Saratoga at 518-584-6018 or visit Opera Saratoga's website at <http://operasaratoga.org>.
